You can apply for a Companion Pass if you are unable to travel alone because of your disability

Are you applying for a Companion Pass? Yes No

Please note, if you ask your GP to complete this evidence form or write a letter, this is not an NHS service. If your GP does agree to complete the form you will normally have to pay, and a completed form does not guarantee you a travel pass. We do not deal directly with GPs.

Section 2 Information for the medical professional
The person named above is applying to for a Disabled Person's Travel Pass on the basis that they "do not have arms or have long-term loss of the use of both arms" as defined in the Transport Act 2000: This is clarified in more detail below. This category includes people with a limb reduction deficiency of both arms; bilateral upper limb amputation; muscular dystrophy; spinal cord injury; motor neurone disease; or a condition of comparable severity.

It also covers both people with deformity of both arms, and people who have both arms, if in either case they are unable to use them to carry out day-to-day tasks, for example, paying coins into a fare machine. This form asks for information about the applicant's disability, please answer to the best of your professional knowledge and judgement.

It is up to the applicant to demonstrate that they qualify for a travel pass, and West Yorkshire Combined Authority has provided this form to help them obtain information about their eligibility under this criteria. However, any costs will be borne by the applicant.
